

～ Sangetsu Design Award 2023 ～

Entry Guidelines

Sangetsu provides products for various spaces, such as residences, commercial facilities, offices, hotels, and medical care and welfare facilities, and delivers the joy of people designing those spaces.

The company does not just supply the products, but also it helps people use them, design spaces, gather together there, have fun, and feel at ease.

With this as its role in society, Sangetsu has the brand concept of "Joy of Design". Through the design and creativity, we assist you in creating an ambience for sharing your dreams.

And with our dream in mind, we launched the "Sangetsu Wallpaper Design Awards" event in 2017, and received many wallpaper designs from many applicants. This year's competition, the seventh time, will be reborn as the "Sangetsu Design Award," in hopes of "wall surface designs" that go beyond wallpaper designs.

In addition to broadening the potential of wallpaper, we are expecting you to come up with your original designs and ideas that are not framed by the category of wallpaper.

About "Joy of Design"

Award Overview

Let's recreate it.

A long time ago, man drew and painted animals and prayers on the walls of caves.
Great artists also made their presence on the walls of churches and residences.
Sometimes for propagandas, but for the statements of young people at other times.
The walls have become a creative field for people living in their ages.

Through creative walls, we are looking for new potentials of next-generation designs.

"Sangetsu Wallpaper Design Awards" has been renamed "Sangetsu Design Award".

Secondary Round * Only contestants who pass the Primary Round need to submit the following.

- Presentation video

Prepare and submit a video of about two and a half minutes that explains the design concept of the work. The contestants who pass the Primary Round will be individually notified of the details.

Final Round * Contestants who pass the Secondary Round (finalists), if they wish, may submit the following.

Only contestants who pass the Secondary Round will be notified of the details of submissions.

- Data for printing in actual size

You may want to show your work in large format as supplementary material to your presentation. In this case, submit by the specified date the actual-size data of your work, 920 mm in width, 1,850 mm in height, and at 72 dpi or higher resolution. The secretariat on the same day will prepare the output to the actual size.

- Projection material

You may want to project images and other information as supplementary materials to your presentation. In this case, submit those data by the specified date. Contestants who pass the Secondary Round will be individually notified of the details of data to submit.

- Materials brought on the same day

It is also possible to bring materials and three-dimensional objects on the same day of the Final Round (however, their sizes will be limited).

Important !

[Potential for Product Development]

- Sangetsu may develop products from winning works and other works that make it to the Final Round.
- If your work is chosen for product development, you may be asked to take part in product development meetings and sign agreements on intellectual property rights, etc., which please note. Sangetsu will directly contact you with more information in that case.
- Product development may require changes to your design and material due to production processes, standards, etc.
- In addition to product development, Sangetsu may adopt the design of an award-winning work for the space design proposed and constructed by the company. Sangetsu will directly contact you with more information in that case.

[Submitted Works]

- Submitted works must meet all of the following criteria.
 - [1] Are original works of the contestants.
 - [2] Have not been already shown or announced domestically or internationally.
 - [3] Are not any replica or similar to any other work.
 - [4] Do not violate any laws or regulations regarding public order or otherwise.
 - [5] Do not infringe on the intellectual property rights or other rights of others in any way, shape or form.
- If submitted works or supporting documents (illustrations and drawings) are found to contravene any of the criteria in [1] thru [5] above, the contestant may be disqualified and, if such discovery is made after winners are announced, stripped of any awards and associated accolades. Moreover, the contestant will be responsible for solving any legal disputes that arise from the matter, as the competition organizer (Sangetsu) and its sponsors do not assume any responsibility whatsoever for related claims, etc.
- All intellectual property rights to winning works (hereinafter called the upper winning works, except the Finalist Award winning works), excluding the rights set forth in Art. 27 and 28 of Japan's Copyright Act, belong to the competition organizer. By entering this competition, the contestant relinquishes all moral rights to winning works. Compensation for those rights is fulfilled with prize money.
- All intellectual property rights to other submitted works than the above upper winning works rest with the contestant. However, by entering this competition, the contestant agrees to allow the competition organizer to duplicate, publicly transmit, announce, exhibit and otherwise use the works and materials submitted for purposes related to this competition free of charge.
- Submitted works may not be entered in other contests or competitions during the competition period of the Sangetsu Design Award 2023, nor may they be publicly shown or announced without the expressed permission of the competition organizer.

- The competition organizer takes every practical and reasonable measure to safeguard submitted works, but refutes any and all liability for damages or losses resulting from acts of god or unforeseeable accidents.
- Submitted works shall not be returned. If required, make copies beforehand.
- Minors must present written consent from a parent or guardian to receive awards.

[Privacy Policy]

The personal information of the applicant shall be managed by Sangetsu Corporation and only be used within the required scope for business communication, sharing event related news or statistical processing.
